During Elba City Council meeting

City clerk says redistricting needed

The Elba City Council met for a rather routine meeting Monday evening, Oct. 9, and during that time, the council voted to all door-to-door neighborhood trick-or-treating in the city again this year designated for a separate time than the annual Pumpkins on the Square event.

Since 2020, this is something the city has done, and the council voted to allow it again this year. The neighborhood door-to-door trick-or-treating time will be Saturday, Oct. 28, from 5-7 p.m. in Elba. Those participating are asked to have their porch lights on while those not wishing to participate should make sure their porch lights are off that evening.

On Monday, Oct. 31, the Elba Chamber will host its annual Pumpkins on the Square event for the city. This will be held on the square in downtown Elba, beginning at 6 p.m. During her report to council members, city clerk Sally Bane said the Southeast Alabama Regional Planning and Development Commission [SEARP&DC] had done an analysis of the city's current census population for the five districts to assess the need for redistricting.

"It was determined that redistricting is needed," Bane said.

She said SEARP&DC officials would begin that process for redistricting before the end of the year to allow for plenty of time for it to be completed before the 2025 municipal elections.

Also while updating council members on various matters, Bane noted that youth basketball registration for the Elba Parks and

HONORING OUR SERVICE MEN AND WOMEN

Elba native serves aboard Navy warship

by Mass Communication Specialist 1st Class Beverly Taylor, Navy Office of Community Outreach

Petty Officer 2nd Class Tray Morrow, a native of Elba, Ala., serves aboard a U.S. Navy warship operating out of Norfolk, Virginia.

Morrow graduated in 2019 from Zion Chapel High School.

The skills and values needed to succeed in the Navy are similar to those found in Elba.

"Growing up in a small town really taught me different trades and a strong work ethic from a young age," said Morrow. "Growing up on a farm teaches you how to get up really early and deal with unpredictable challenges. This is very similar to what I have experienced in the Navy and I love that I already have those skillsets to help me succeed at my job."

Morrow joined the Navy four years ago. Today, Morrow serves as a machinist's mate aboard USS Kearsarge.

"I joined the Navy because serving in the military has been in my family for a very long time and I wanted to keep the tradition going," said Morrow. "I also wanted to travel and learn some new experiences."

Kearsarge's crew is made up of approximately 1,200 crewmembers and can accommodate up to 1,800 Marines. Amphibious assault ships transfer Marines, equipment and supplies, and can support helicopters or other aircraft. Kearsarge is the third ship in the Wasp class of multipurpose amphibious assault ships and is the fourth Navy vessel to bear the name of Mount Kearsarge in New Hampshire.

Serving in the Navy means Morrow is part of a team that is taking on new importance in America's focus on rebuilding military readiness, strengthening alliances and reforming business practices in support of the National Defense Strategy.

"The Navy contributes to national defense by showing that the U.S. is a powerful country, but also willing to help out in many ways," said Morrow.

With 90% of global commerce traveling by sea and access to the internet relying on the security of undersea fiber optic cables, Navy officials continue to emphasize that the prosperity of the United States is directly linked to trained sailors and a strong Navy.

Morrow has many opportunities to achieve accomplishments during military service.

"My proudest accomplishment in the military is when I am able to teach a younger sailor something new and they come back to me to help them succeed," said Morrow. "Their success makes me feel like I did my job."

As Morrow and other sailors continue to train and perform missions, they take pride in serving their country in the U.S. Navy.

"Serving in the Navy means that I am able to work with people from different cultures and we all manage to get along and make a ship go," said Morrow. "That unity is awesome to witness."

Morrow is grateful to others for helping make a Navy career possible.

"I really want to thank everybody in my family and all my friends back home who supported me," added Morrow. "My grandfather showed me that the military can be a good avenue for me and my dad truly showed me what hard work ethic was. My mom is obviously just the best, and my sister is probably the strongest young woman I know. I appreciate them all so much."

Inviting all to come enjoy the fun

Pumpkins on the Square returns to Elba on Halloween night, Oct. 31st

The City of Elba is gearing up for its annual thrilling Halloween event – Pumpkins on the Square, scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 31, on Courthouse Square in downtown Elba.

The event, which promises to be a fun-filled evening for locals and tourists alike, begins at 6 p.m. and will feature free candy, a haunted hayride, a unique Witch Ride, a costume contest, food vendors, and live music. Pumpkins on the Square is not just about fun and games; it also serves a noble cause. The event's haunted hayride and bouncy house proceeds will go towards organizations at Elba High School. There is no admission fee to the event as area businesses and organizations give out free candy to the kids. Also, the Coffee County Farm City Association will be offering free boiled peanuts during Pumpkins on the Square.

The event's costume contest is free to enter and begins at 7 p.m. on the main stage. There are fees for food vendors, games and activities. Sandy Williams, the Chamber of Commerce and Main Street director, expressed her enthusiasm for the event. She emphasized that Pumpkins on the Square is a family-friendly event suitable for all age groups. New to the event this year, a 'Witches Ride' will kick-off the evening at 5:30 p.m., with participants encouraged to Halloween dress-up as witches. Bicycles, golf carts, etc. are invited. The ride will begin at the circle driveway of the Elba Recreation Department [764 Claxton Ave], cover the short distance from there to the Square, with participants throwing candy to spectators.

The Witch Ride will kick-off the main event with the entrance of the 'witches' in the downtown area. Joey Daniels, the Chamber of Commerce board chairman, encourages everyone to come in their favorite Halloween costumes and enjoy all the festivities. Elba Rotarians Kenneth Calhoun (left) and Justin Maddox (right) recently were recognized as Paul Harris Fellow award recipients. Also, recognized for the award were Barry Giles and the late Bill Brunson.

Rotarians receive Paul Harris Fellow award

The Elba Rotary Club recently celebrated members who were recognized as a Paul Harris Fellow with various types of awards.

The Paul Harris Fellow program recognizes individuals who contribute to The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International. The honor was established in 1957 to show appreciation for contributions that support our Annual Fund, PolioPlus, or an approved Foundation grant.

Members recognized recently included: Barry Giles, Justin Maddox, Kenneth Calhoun, and the late Bill Brunson. Awardees were celebrated with certificates and/or lapel pins.

In other news, The Elba Rotary Club has begun its revitalization campaign in anticipation for the 20th anniversary of Tiger Town Park.

Tiger Town Playground was built in 2006 as a community initiative and has proven to be a well-loved resource to Elba. As the 20th anniversary (2026) approaches, the Elba Rotary Club received an assessment of items that are in need of repair through their oversight of maintenance for the park.

A few weeks ago the club officially kicked off this initiative by purchasing new wood chips and replacing two slides that were noted in the assessment.

"An educated citizenry is a vital requisite for our survival as a free people." – Thomas Jefferson

Olympic gold medalist Mary Lou Retton is in the hospital, all hooked up to machines, with a severe breathing problem. Whatever her issues, the medical expenses have gone through the roof. In spite of her lifetime success with gymnastics, her daughter put out a call for financial help on a go-fund-me account. Within days the pledges far exceeded the amount requested. We recall watching her perform during her career and recall her smile and personality radiated while performing or just talking. She left the impression that she had a heart of gold. We wish her well.

Two tourists were shot and killed in Brussels, Belgium last week. Killings are happening all too often all around the world. This one resonated with us because we have walked down those downtown Brussels streets. It was of course years ago but not one moment did we feel unsafe. Those Belgian people were extremely nice and accommodating. We met two couples that took us under their wings, and when necessary, translated for us, etc. They gave us phone numbers, mailing addresses and invited us to come back when we had more time to see and enjoy the beauty of their country. One of the ladies was obviously pregnant but her smile and conversation stayed toe-to-toe with that of her husband all that afternoon. They were as anxious to get information about the United States as we were about Belgian. Those addresses are still in our files but we haven't written them in many, many years. The odds of both couples still living at those same places are slim to none, but we keep them anyway. As an afterthought we are grateful that we don't have another trip scheduled to Europe any time soon.

Alvin Benn, of Selma, AL, died last week. He was first a reporter for the wire service UPI, and a number of newspapers around the South before becoming a longtime reporter for the Montgomery Advertiser. Al was a really nice guy. You would never have suspected it from his mild personality, but he was a veteran of the U. S. Marines. For years he traveled Southeast Alabama picking up hard news and human interest stories for the Advertiser. After officially retiring from the Advertiser he continued to write his column, 'Al Benn's Alabama'. In true romantic style he met his future wife, mother of his two children and lifetime companion, Sharon, on a blind date, set up by friends.

The death count is now in the thousands, and 27 Americans are among them. This attack is the largest single-day mass murder of Jews since the Holocaust.

I stand with Israel as they work to defend themselves against these atrocities.

As soon as we have elected a Speaker, one of our first priorities should include aid to Israel. But we also need to consider what led to this tragedy. Our disastrous Afghanistan withdrawal in 2021 demonstrated great weakness and left $512 billion in weapons that have made it into the hands of multiple terrorist groups.

Furthermore, just weeks ago, President Biden paid Iran $6 billion for the release of five American hostages. President Trump brought 58 hostages home without paying a dime. Even if Iran can't currently access the $6 billion Biden gave them, they can access the $80 billion in oil exports they have earned since Biden lifted Trump's economic sanctions. When Biden projects weakness on the world's stage, terrorists see an opportunity.

In May, I had the privilege of visiting Israel for the first time and was amazed by the history, the scenery, and most of all, the people. The Holy Land is filled with resilient citizens who love their faith, honor their history, and are ready to fight for their country. All the Israeli Defense Force members we met were passionately dedicated to protecting their homeland, even under constant threat of rocket fire. They now face much greater risks.

My wife Heather and I are heartbroken for the families who are now missing, or have lost, loved ones. I hope you will join us in praying for the leaders, defense forces, and families in Israel. Genesis 12:3 promises us that those who bless Israel will be blessed, and those who curse Israel will be cursed.

My office is standing by to assist Alabamians who need help following these terrorist attacks. If you or someone you know needs help, you can reach my office by calling 202-225-2901 or going to barmyhouse.house.gov. If you need to reach the U.S. Embassy in Israel, you can call 1-833-890-9595.

Council members voted to approve a new alcohol

A motion was passed to allow for the repaving of Whitman Street as part of ongoing paving projects within the city. The additional paving project is projected to cost under $30,000.

The next Elba City Council meeting is set for Monday, Oct. 23, at 5:30 p.m., at Elba City Hall.

A little 'cool snap' hits, and Papa is jumping up and down to turn the heat on! At least, that was the case this past Sunday night when it got a little chilly outside. However, the nicely insulated house was keeping everything at a pleasant 73 degrees in the Yonder Gang's residence when Papa thought it might be a good idea to turn the heat on for the "just in case we need it" scenario.

Papa was sitting in his recliner watching football, and Cuzin Lou Lou and Sister were moving around the house – each on some sort of personal mission – when Papa decided to ask, "Ya'll want me to go ahead and turn on the heat?"

Immediately and in unison, Lou Lou and Sister each replied, "NO!"

What in the name of Yonder was Papa thinking?!?!? Yes...it was a little cooler outside, but there was definitely no need for the heat to be on inside!

Papa got the message real quick, and he sat back in that 'ole recliner and continued watching the game rather than stir that nest anymore. Of course, that did not stop Lou Lou and Sister from reminding Papa that if he was a "little cool" there were plenty of throws lying around, and he could always grab one of those to get a little cozier!

The day will come when it is time to turn the heat on at the gang's house, but Lou Lou is hoping that is still several weeks away for now. In the meantime, she is going to see if she can help Papa be more inclined to grab a throw by making sure he has a more "manly looking one" lying around for him to grab.

It may be the only way his 75-year-old body and the 40-something bodies of Lou Lou and Sister all co-exist under the same roof, especially if Papa is already thinking about the heat when it is only Fall and not even Winter yet!

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!

Coping with the Unspoken Grief: The Loss of a Pregnancy or Infant

The profound anguish experienced from the loss of a pregnancy or an infant is an indescribable sorrow, touching the very core of one's being. This grief, intertwined with aspirations and a bond formed from the moment of awareness, is truly profound. Observations from numerous individuals navigating this path have consistently highlighted the essential nature of self-care during such times; it is not merely recommended but imperative.

When we talk about self-care in the context of such a loss, we are not referring to the popularized notions of spa days or retail therapy. It's more about giving yourself permission to grieve and finding ways to navigate the complex tapestry of emotions that follow.

For some, the act of pouring emotions onto paper can be incredibly therapeutic. Imagine sitting down with a journal, the pages blank and waiting, and just letting your heart speak. It might be memories, letters to the little soul, or simply an outpouring of feelings. Over time, this written record can serve as a testament to your healing journey, with all its ebbs and flows.

Art, in all its diverse forms, offers a canvas to express when words fall short. Maybe it's the gentle brush strokes on paper, molding clay, or losing oneself in the cadence of music. Through art, emotions find a tangible outlet, and it becomes less about the result and more about the process of creation and expression.

Often, the grief associated with losing a pregnancy or infant can feel isolating, as though you're trapped in a silent bubble. It's essential to remember you're not alone in this. Keeping the lines of communication open with loved ones can act as a lifeline. There's immeasurable power in shared stories, empathetic nods, and even silent companionship.

And let's not forget the simple yet potent acts of self-care that root us in the present. Lighting a candle, immersing oneself in a book, dedicating a quiet moment each day to reflect, or simply focusing on deep, measured breaths—these seemingly small acts weave together to create a sanctuary of healing.

In the end, while the pain of losing a pregnancy or an infant may never truly vanish, the way we engage with our grief evolves.

It's Just A Costume

Every team has a Mascot. A beloved character that entertains the fans with their antics on the sidelines or in the stands. They are a visual representation of the teams chosen identity, and are a big part of what we enjoy about football.

But they aren't real, they are someone playing a part. We know the character but not the person inside the costume.

It reminds me of one summer vacation at the beach when our children were all still young. At some point during the week my middle son Adam had gotten a pirate costume complete with hat, eye patch, sword and plastic hook that covered his hand.

The morning we were to head home Adam, wearing his pirate garb, was helping me load up our car. On one of our trips down the elevator a gentleman stepped into the elevator with us and asked Adam "are you a pirate?" To which Adam replies "arrrr". The gentleman pretended to be startled as we both laughed.

Adam believing the man actually believed that he was in fact a pirate quickly said "it's ok is just a costume". We all had a good belly laugh as we exited the elevator. In his innocence Adam wanted to be transparent and not hide anything from the man, unlike many adults who like those mascots hide behind a mask to conceal their true identity.

Many times we live our lives in the same way, putting on a good face but never showing what is really on the inside. 1 Samuel 16:7 says "for God does not see as man sees, since man looks at the outward appearance, but God looks at the heart."

You see, like the mascot, we can fool a lot of people, but we can't fool God because He know what's underneath the costume in our heart.

Ralph and Patricia Sharpless were presented a Resolution earlier this month on the floor of the State House Senate in Montgomery recognizing their 70th wedding anniversary. Those pictured include (from l-r) Grant Chambliss, Haleigh Chambliss, Gordon Chambliss, Lisa Chambliss, Senator Clyde Chambliss, Pat Sharpless, Ralph Sharpless, Karen Sharpless, and Ken Sharpless.

Legislators present couple with resolution recognizing their 70th wedding anniversary

Ralph and Patricia (Pinckard) Sharpless celebrated their platinum 70th wedding anniversary September 25, 2023.

State Senator Clyde Chambliss presented them with a Resolution on the floor of the State House Senate, in Montgomery, recognizing this crowning achievement.

Pat and Ralph met in a typing class at Elba High School in 1950 after they were seated next to each other for the semester. After graduation, they both attended Troy University, then known as Troy State College.

They married September 25th, 1953, and planned to honeymoon at the beach; however, Hurricane Florence forced them to Montgomery. This wasn't the first time that weather affected their relationship.

Their first date was postponed due to a storm that washed out the dirt road between Ralph's family farm and town, where Pat lived.

Ralph joined the U.S. Army Reserve while he was a student at Troy. After graduation, he was stationed in Germany to serve in a mobile field hospital. While stationed overseas, the couple enjoyed traveling throughout Europe together.

After their return to the states, Ralph went back to school and got a second degree in medical technology from the University of Alabama in Birmingham. The couple moved back home to Elba in 1973 and lived there until a few years ago, when they moved to Pike Road, Ala., to be nearer their daughter.

Pat and Ralph were blessed with two children, Ken Sharpless (Karen) and Lisa Sharpless Chambliss (Gordon). They have four grandsons, Michael Sharpless (Amanda), Painter Sharpless, Grant Chambliss (Haleigh) and Hunter Chambliss (deceased).

Senator Chambliss presented the Resolution to them at the State House on Tuesday, October 10th. He stated he has never personally known a couple that has been married for 70 years and confirmed what an accomplishment it is.

The Senate Resolution congratulates Mr. and Mrs. Sharpless "on the occasion of their 70th Wedding Anniversary; this resolution is offered to them as evidence of our high esteem and with best wishes for many more happy anniversaries to come."

Answering the Call

The vast majority of those who run for elected office do so quite willingly, but that was not the case for Dwight D. Eisenhower following his success as Supreme Commander of Allied Forces in Europe in World War II. Before the 1948 Presidential Election, both major parties mounted "draft Eisenhower" movements, trying to persuade him to run. President Truman even offered to serve as vice president if Eisenhower would accept the Democratic nomination for President.

What convinced Eisenhower that he should run was the announcement by Senator Robert A. Taft of his own candidacy. Taft was an isolationist, but Eisenhower believed America needed to combat communism actively. Eisenhower finally affirmed, "I do not believe that you or I or anyone else has the right to state, categorically, that he will not perform any duty that his country might demand of him."

Moses was also reluctant: he tried to fend off God's "draft Moses" call by focusing on his own lack of ability, event disability (see Exodus 3:13 – 4:13). But God would not take no for an answer. He still doesn't. – C.R.B.

"Come Home, It's Suppertime" folklife play set to take stage in November

Tickets are now on sale for the Celebration Season of "Come Home, It's Suppertime" Alabama's Official Folklife Play at the We Piddle Around Theater in Brundidge, November 2, 3 and 4 and 9, 10 and 11.

Everyone is invited to be a part of the 20-years' celebration of the original folklife play that tells true stories of life during the Great Depression.

Tickets are $30 and include the preshow, the award-winning, two-act play and a family-style, country supper.

Lawrence Bowden, president of the sponsoring Brundidge Historical Society, said the year 2023 will be the 20th anniversary of the original folklife play that shares true stories of those who lived through Hard Times in rural South Alabama.

"All the stories in 'Come Home, It's Suppertime' are told as they were told by those who milled around in Pike County during the Great Depression," Bowden said. "As we say in the play, the stories we tell are told just as they were told to us." Some may be true, some may not and some might be downright lies."

Bowden said "Come Home, It's Suppertime" will make the audience laugh, and then, get a lump in throat.

"Our hopes are that those who come home at suppertime will leave feeling like they have spent time at the supper table listening to their grandma and grandpa tell about Hard Times and those who lived them," Bowden said. "And that the songs they have heard will be with them in the coming days as a reminder of way back when."

We went with our daughters and our two grandsons to visit a pumpkin patch over the weekend and while it was a great day to be out, both Nanny and I were a little tired after a couple of hours of following them around the farm and tromping through the pumpkin patch and sunflower field. Lawson always enjoys picking his own pumpkins that will be on display on their front porch and found some good ones, and this time he also enjoyed shooting basketball at a goal atop a tractor. As for Cannon, he wanted to walk all over the farm and even rode a motorized cow with his Mom. Yep, it was a fun day for everyone in the Mularz Family!

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers had their hands full with an aggressive team from Georgiana last Friday night, but took the fight to their visitors for all four quarters and posted a big win to remain atop the region standings with three weeks left in the regular season. Elba used a ball control running game to score three early touchdowns and eat time off the clock, and after allowing a touchdown on a big play applied the clamps to the high-scoring Georgiana offense and in the second half took complete command. The Tigers did make some mistakes that kept them from building on their lead and definitely can't make eleven penalties in a single game. However, the game last week was intense and the Tigers answered the bell and came out fighting to remain the team to beat in the region.

 It wasn't too good a week around the area with only one team being able to log a win on their side of the ledger. Here's a quick look back at last week's action.... * Zion Chapel kept plugging along and evened its record at 4-4 with an 18-0 shutout win over Geneva County. The Rebels have developed an identity over the course of the season that they are hard-nosed and physical, and it seems to fit. * New Brockton appeared ready to hang with highly-favored Straughn for a quarter and a half Friday night, but saw the wheels come off the wagon and could only watch as they fell 41-12. The Gamecocks have improved in a lot of areas this season, but right now just don't have enough athletes to be big winners in a very competitive region. * Kinston saw its playoff hopes vanish in a 31-29 upset loss to Red Level, and now will be playing for pride in the final three weeks of the season. The Bulldogs jumped ahead early, but allowed a couple of big plays and when the final horn sounded they were on the wrong end of the final score. Look for the Bulldogs to play even harder than ever in the weeks to come and go out with a bang.

 It was another exciting week across the state as 16 teams scored sixty points or more, led by Coosa Christian, who almost blew out the scoreboard in a 94-7 win over Cedar Bluff. Other lopsided wins included Randolph County blasting D.A.R. 75-13 and Clay-Chalkville rolling past hapless Huffman 72-0. By the way, Huffman has now been outscored 454-0 this season and is on track to break a couple of records for futility! Here is a quick look back at the action across the state in week #8.... Class 1A – Top-ranked Leroy whipped Southern Choctaw 41-8 and #3 Sweet Water battled past Keith 27-7, while closer to home Florala outscored McKenzie 36-34. Class 2A – Top-ranked B.B. Comer ripped Thorsby 35-13 and #2 Highland Home coasted past Barbour County 39-0, while closer to home Cottonwood spanked G.W. Long 48-15, Goshen beat Luverne 34-17, Arifton clobbered Abbeville 54-20 and Pike Lib rallied past Liberty County 17-14. Class 3A – Top-ranked Mars Hill pounded Phil Campbell 62-6 and #2 Mobile Christian kept pace with a 34-0 win over Cottage Hill, while closer to home Houston Academy rolled over Northside Methodist 42-7, Opp dumped Daleville 33-14 and Providence Christian outscored Pike County 46-26. Class 4A – Top-ranked Andalusia cruised past Slocomb 42-6 and #3 Montgomery Catholic blanked Bullock County 38-0, while closer to home Dale County got back in the win column with a 37-30 victory over Geneva. Class 5A – Top-ranked Gulf Shores rolled past Elberta 55-7 and #3 Clay Central blanked Sylacauga 48-0, while closer to home Charles Henderson ripped Eufaula 51-31, Headland hammered Carroll 52-22 and Rehobeth surprised Greenville 21-18. Class 6A – Top-ranked Saraland kept rolling with a 56-7 win over Baldwin County and #3 Muscle Shoals dumped Decatur 56-, while a little closer to home Pike Road outscored Russell County 63-27 and Lanier fought past Stanhope Elmore 32-24. Class 7A – Top-ranked Central, of Phenix City, defeated Percy Julian 35-6 and #2 Thompson kept pace with a 68-7 win over Oak Mountain, while closer to home #9 Dothan surprised #6 Enterprise 21-14 to throw the region into a mess with three weeks left.  It was a so-so week for the college teams in the state as Alabama held on late to get past Arkansas 24-21, Troy blanked Army 19-0 and Auburn fell on the road to LSU 48-18. The Crimson Tide took charge early, but again proved to even the biggest Bama fan that this year's team will have to scrap and fight to defeat any team on its schedule, while the Trojans used an aggressive defense and an effective offense to surprise the Black Knights, and the Tigers simply didn't have enough weapons to hang in with a high-scoring LSU offensive attack.

 The apparent never-ending exodus of sports teams from the AISA is continuing as Fort Dale, of Greenville, announced last week that the private school would join the ranks of the Alabama High School Athletic Association beginning in the 2026-27 school year. Rumors indicated Fort Dale would make the jump next season, but school officials had a change of heart and also made a change in plans in backing up the move for two years. I am not sure why the school decided to wait, but my guess is that the struggles of Pike Liberal Arts after its recent move made the school officials decide to jump in slowly, and not try to compete in the AHSAA until all its sports teams are really ready to be competitive.

 Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator was running a little late and sent this week's picks by email, but the local guesspert did hit on 30 of his 35 picks last week and continued to enjoy a banner season. He stated this week includes more than its share of toss-ups, but swore to never back down and sent his fearless forecast. Here goes....

ELBA VS. FLORALA

The Pea River felines will take a trip down near the state line this weekend looking to remain unbeaten and hold on to their spot atop the region standings. A litter of kitties that hang out just this side of the line have been quietly moving up the standings all season and will be waiting to spring a trap. However, the felines are also on a roll and should roll to win #8.

ELBA 41 FLORALA 22

KINSTON VS. MCKENZIE

The bulldogs from down near the county line went back to the pound hungry last weekend after being caged at home, and this week will be looking to chase a litter of kitties all over the field to prove they are still the top dogs in the area. While the dogs may do some chasing, these kitties have claws and won't back down from a fight.

Tigers travel to Florala

From the frying pan into the fire

The Elba Tigers will close out their regular season road schedule Friday night when they travel to Florala to battle the high-powered Florala Wildcats, in a key region match-up.

Elba holds a slim 17-14-4 series edge over Florala, has won five of the last six meetings and last season posted a 55-27 win.

"It looks like there is never an easy week on our schedule," stated Elba Tiger head coach Marc Sieving. "Last week we played Georgiana, which was undefeated in region play, and this week we have to travel to Florala for a road challenge against a team that has won five straight games and sits second in the region standings with only one loss. There is no doubt we are having to be at our best every time we take the field, and that will

Elba Lady Tigers looking forward to area tournament challenge

The Elba Lady Tigers will be looking to continue to add even more accomplishments to their historic season this week when they travel to Kinston High School to compete in the Class 1A, Area 1 Volleyball Tournament.

The Lady Tigers will tip-off tournament action at 1:00 against Houston County, with Kinston to face Florala at 2:15. The winners of the opening matches will meet for the tournament title and the top seed in next week's Super Regional Tournament, with the runner-up earning the number two seed.

"This group of girls have worked hard all season to improve as individuals and as a team and are close to reaching one of their goals, which is to get to Montgomery to compete at the Super Regional," said Lady Tiger head coach Melissa Mularz. "We felt like we had a very good shot at making it to Montgomery last season, but fell one win short, and everyone on the team is really focused on making the trip this season. We know Houston County is the team that knocked us out last season, and while many think pay back is a good source of motivation, our motivation is to play our best and keep the season going."

"We know all the teams in the area tournament will be playing their best and will be playing hard to advance to the next round," added Coach Mularz, "and we will have to match their intensity and play our best. It will be a real fight, but one we are ready for."

BRANTLEY VS. PLEASANT HOME

The bulldogs from up across the creek enjoyed a week off and should be well fed and well rested when they get back on the field this weekend. The folks in the concession stand better put on a sale early in this one because the fans will get to head home early.

NEW BROCKTON VS. ASHFORD

The roosters that hang out behind the warehouse lost even more feathers last weekend and will now have to load up on insect repellent as they get ready to hit the field against a batch of yellow jackets that are looking to sting and run. The roosters won't back away from the fight, but may get more than just a few stings in this one.

ZION CHAPEL VS. COTTONWOOD

A coaching friend of mine likes to use the term 'a fight in a phone booth,' and this week the Rebels will do just that as they go to war against a bunch of ornery ole bears that can lock down the region title with a win. The troops from Fort Jack will have their muskets loaded and may hit a few targets, but in the end the bears may be just a little too much to handle.

the scoreboard against everyone they play. Over on defense they aren't real big, but really run to the ball and are very aggressive. They are kind of a big play team on defense, just like on offense, and can hurt you on any play."

"For us to be successful Friday night we will need to dominate the line of scrimmage on both sides of the ball and be both aggressive and smart on defense," added Sieving. "On offense we need to establish the run, mix in some passes and put points on the scoreboard. Over on defense we will have to tackle well, use good technique and stop what they do best. Last week's game against Georgiana was a big game, but this is now the biggest game of the season because they have only one region loss and can jump into a tie for the top spot with a win. We expect Florala to play their best game of the season and probably open the playbook wide open to put points on the scoreboard. Some teams we have played have tried to slow down the game by watching the play clock, but Florala won't worry about that and will come out blazing."

When asked about last week's 38-6 region win over Georgiana, Coach Sieving said, "It was a great win over a very good opponent and everyone played really hard. We did make some mistakes in the fourth quarter that upset the coaches, but they weren't from a lack of effort and we never stopped playing hard. Offensively we were able to run the football and put together drives that resulted in points, and on defense we made enough stops to get them off the field. It wasn't always pretty, but it was a good win, and believe me Georgiana has a really good team that will make some noise in the playoffs."

Tigers pound Panthers 38-6

The Elba Tigers scored on their initial four offensive series to open up a 28-6 halftime lead and never looked back Friday night as they rolled to a 38-6 region win over the Georgiana Panthers, at Tiger Stadium.

Elba received the opening kickoff and promptly marched 80 yards in 12 plays and ate up over six minutes off the clock to grab an early 7-0 lead. Cayden Adkins rushed for 35 yards on three carries to lead the Tigers down the field, while Alvin Henderson added 28 yards on five carries and scored the Tiger touchdown on a 1-yard run, Alex Wisecup kicked the extra-point to put Elba on top 7-0 with 5:45 remaining in the first quarter.

Elba began its next possession at its own 42-yardline after Cayden Adkins partially blocked a Panther punt, and this time it took the Tigers seven plays to cover the 58 yards to the endzone. The trio of Alvin Henderson, Cayden Adkins and Brayden Johnson took turns butting heads with the Georgiana defense, with Johnson scoring the Tigers second touchdown of the half on a 13-yard dash up the middle. Wisecup added the extra-point as Elba upped its lead to 14-0 with 11:40 left in the second quarter.

Elba turned back a Georgiana scoring threat on the game's ensuing series when Cayden Adkins picked off a Panther pass at the two-yardline and returned the interception 29 yards to quickly flip the field. From there it took the Tigers six plays to get back into the endzone, with Alvin Henderson rushing for 51 yards on four carries and capping the 69-yard drive with a 15-yard td run. Wisecup added the extra-point, and with 5:16 left in the half the Tigers lead was up to 21-0.

Georgiana began its ensuing possession at its own 27-yardline and needed only one play to get on the scoreboard as on first down Jacobie Morgan hit Demetrius Watson with a short pass near the sidelines, and Watson broke two tackles and raced down the sidelines 73 yards for a score. A two-point pass failed to produce points, but with 4:50 left in the half Georgiana had cut the Elba lead to 21-6.

Elba began its fourth possession of the half near midfield after a 24-yard kickoff return by Alvin Henderson and this time needed only one play to regain command, as Henderson swept the right side, turned up field and raced 52 yards for his third touchdown of the night. Wisecup's extra-point try was good, and with 4:15 remaining in the half the Tigers were back in command with a 28-6 advantage.

Elba started the second half at the Georgiana 33-yardline after a 29-yard punt return by Cameron Gray, and while the Tigers failed to reach the endzone, they did add three-points on a 33-yard field goal by Alex Wisecup to push their lead to 31-6 with 7:27 remaining in the third quarter.

Elba got the ball right back at the Georgiana 25-yardline on a fumble recovery by Jacob Watkins and quickly cashed in the turnover to extend its lead. Alvin Henderson rushed for 26 yards on three carries and scored his fourth touchdown of the game on a 6-yard dash around the left end, and Wisecup tacked on the extra-point to put the Tigers on top 38-6 with 3:59 still left in the quarter.

Elba threatened again on its final possession of the game and put together an 11-play drive that ate up almost eight minutes off the clock. The Tigers reached a first down at the Georgiana 17-yardline, but a rash of penalty flags against Elba bogged down the long drive, and forced only the second punt of the season as the Tigers held on to post the big 38-6 region win.

Alvin Henderson rushed for 221 yards on 23 carries and scored 4 touchdowns to lead Elba, while Cayden Adkins added 69 yards on eight carries and Brayden Johnson rushed for 34 yards and 1 td on eight carries. Henderson also completed one pass for 11 yards, with Ty Sieving pulling in the pass.

Jacobie Morgan rushed for 41 yards on 10 carries and completed 8 of 17 passes for 175 yards and 1 touchdown to lead Georgiana, with Demetrius Watson pulling in three passes for 85 yards and one td.

Elba Tiger Brayden Johnson (12) eyes the endzone as he takes off on a 13-yard touchdown run in last week's 38-6 win over Georgiana.

Elba Tiger Alvin Henderson (2) heads upfield for a big gain. Henderson rushed for 221 yards and 4 touchdowns in last week's big 38-6 region win over Georgiana.

Kinston Bulldogs upset by Red Level 31-29

The Kinston Bulldogs saw their playoff hopes dashed Friday night in a 31-29 upset loss to the Red Level Tigers, at Tiger Stadium.

Kinston got on the scoreboard first early in the second quarter on a 32-yard field goal by Marcus Free to grab a 3-0 lead. However, Red Level had a quick response to the first points of the game and went ahead 6-3 with 8:51 left in the half when Koltin Barlow connected with Javen Poindexter on a 37-yard scoring pass.

The Bulldogs got a break late in the half when Dray Weeks recovered a fumble at the Red Level 29-yardline following a botched punt attempt, and two plays later Brant McCollough scored on an 18-yard dash to put Kinston back on top. Free added the extra-point, and at halftime the Bulldogs carried a 10-6 lead into the dressing room.

Kinston received he second half kickoff and promptly marched 93 yards in only five plays to extend its lead. Colby Tew scored the Bulldog touchdown on a 62-yard gallop, and Free added the extra-point as Kinston opened up a 17-6 lead with 9:36 remaining in the third quarter.

The combination of Barlow to Poindexter connected again on Red Level's ensuing possession, this time on a 55-yard touchdown toss, to pull the Tigers within 17-12 with 8:50 left in the quarter, while on the Tigers next possession Poindexter broke loose and raced 44 yards into the endzone to put Red Level on top 18-17 with 3:06 remaining on the clock.

Kinston answered quickly on its ensuing possession and regained the lead at 23-18 with 1:41 still left in the quarter on a 52-yard scoring run by Brant McCollough, but Red Level refused to slow down and scored on its next offensive series on a 3-yard run by Poindexter to go back on top 24-23 with 8:49 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Disaster struck the Bulldogs on the ensuing kickoff when a fumble handed the ball back to Red Level at the Kinston 34-yardline, and the Tigers wasted little time cashing in the turnover as Koltin Barlow again hooked up with Javen Poindexter, this time from 15 yards out, and the extra-point was successful as Red Level opened up a 31-23 lead with 7:10 left on the clock.

Kinston began its ensuing possession at its own 35-yardline and went 65 yards in eight plays to get back into the endzone. Colby Tew scored his second touchdown of the night on a 13-yard run, but a two-point try failed to produce points, and with 3:30 left on the clock the Bulldogs trailed 31-29.

An on-sides kick attempt by Kinston was recovered by Red Level, and the Tigers moved the chains twice to run out the clock as they surprised Kinston 31-29 in the key region clash.

Colby Tew rushed for 203 yards and two touchdowns on 25 carries to lead the Kinston ground attack, while Brant McCollough rushed for 144 yards and two td's on nine carries.
